

MINDY: CHARLES? I didn't want to tell you this before because I felt a little awkward, but I think I'm developing feelings for you.... I actually think I love you.

CHARLES: Oh my god really?? This is taking me by surprise!

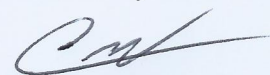

MINDY: Did I say it too soon? Did I mess everything up by telling the truth?

CHARLES: No No Not all! I'm just.... I mean I think I'm in love with you too. It's just that I didn't know how to tell you or when to tell you. You're literally the first girlfriend I've ever had in my life and I don't really know a lot about relationships. I'm honestly very inexperienced on this subject. I hope you understand.

MINDY: Of course I understand. And trust me this is very new for me too because I've never felt like this for anyone else before you came along.

CHARLES: Well that's awesome! I guess we're officially boyfriend and girlfriend then. Is it ok for me to say that I love you without feeling scared that you'll judge me?

MINDY: Of course honey. I love you too! You're amazing and wonderful! Plus you make love to me in ways that no one else has ever dared to attempt before. I admire you and you've become my idol. All I think about is you and how much fun we have together. I would love for you to meet my parents. Actually I kind of already arranged dinner at my parents' tonight. Is that ok with you? I mean I'm very sorry I kept it a secret.

CHARLES: Oh no that's totally fine with me. I'm a little scared to meet them but I'm also kind of hungry so it'll be perfect!

MINDY: My parents will love getting to know you. I promise you'll enjoy yourself.

CHARLES: I just hope I can make a good impression on them.

MINDY: Oh stop it! I'm sure you will. Let's get going though because we want to be there on time.

CHARLES: Let's do this.

Scene #36: As soon as CHARLES and his girlfriend arrive at the front door of her parent's house, she starts feeling a little embarrassed because she wants to let him know about some family matters before they come inside.
