

Scene #18: CHARLES walks into the film set as soon as his named is called. He begins shaking and sweating from all his anxiety. His heart beat is so strong now that he can't help but feel self conscious about it. In addition to all this, CHARLES starts worrying about the size of his penis being too small for these kinds of movies. Even though CHARLES had desired to get laid for so long, his feelings of horniness seem to have disappeared completely from his body. His nervousness and anxiety have just taken complete control over his mind, which causes him to look like a very shy/introverted person. CHARLES doesn't feel in control anymore and he feels he can't coordinate very well either. Not only is CHARLES shaking, but he also finds it difficult to walk straight on the film set. He is definitely about to faint.

Scene #19: CHARLES is about to pass out when all of the sudden the Casting Director approaches him because he could tell from the distance that CHARLES is having a lot of trouble adjusting to the new environment.

C.D.: Hey kid. I see you're pretty nervous right now. I think you should probably leave and maybe stay out of the business since you don't seem to be cut out for this anyways. Why don't you just go home and relax.

CHARLES: Sir, I beg you to give me only one shot at this, please. I know I'm feeling a little weird now but as soon as my scene with the girl starts, I'm going to be fine.

The Casting Director looks at CHARLES with hesitance but he suddenly notices the girl from the scene entering the film set and he gets distracted by her beauty.

C.D.: Well kid there's your girl. You think you can handle that?

CHARLES' eyes go huge when he sees that his scene partner is a blonde blue eyed babe.

CHARLES: I can assure you sir that I'm going to do my best to do a really good job.

C.D.: That's what I like to hear from all my actors. Now go fuck that girl and make me proud.

CHARLES nodded his head.

Scene #20: CHARLES stands in front of the camera to wait for the girl to come to where he is. The film director gets angry because he is planning on shooting a solo scene with the girl first.

Film Director: Dude what the fuck man?
